

New York State Library

Color Our Collections 2017

Louis Bo-Peep

The thirteen images in this collection come from early 20th-century women's periodicals in the NYS Library's collections. The images – which include advertisements, political cartoons and article illustrations – were published between 1909 and 1921 and are arranged chronologically.

New York State Library

www.nysl.nysed.gov

M. HEMINWAY & SONS SILK CO.

Ad for embroidery silks from M. Heminway & Sons Silk, Co.
The Modern Priscilla, August 1904

Mother Goose Children

To be Colored and Cut out for Paper Dolls. Designs by the Priscilla Art Department.

Little Bo-Peep

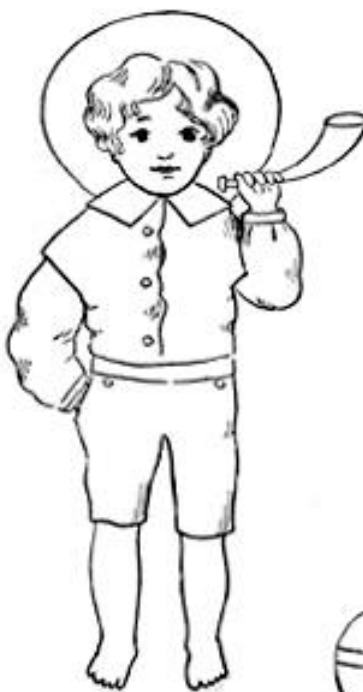

Jack

Jill

Little Miss Moffat

Little Boy Blue

Mistress Mary

Mother Goose Children, "to be colored and cut out for paper dolls"
From The Modern Priscilla, May 1909

From The Woman's Journal and Suffrage News, July 13, 1912

THE DAWN OF REASON

WOMANHOOD, NOW FULLY AWAKE, WITH AWE AND JOY SEES UPON THE HORIZON THE DAWN OF A NEW ERA. THE LAMP OF KNOWLEDGE IS AT HER FEET

From The Woman's Journal and Suffrage News, December 28, 1912

"Good and Serviceable Aprons and Housedresses"
The Modern Priscilla, March 1916

No. 16-6-54. EMBROIDERED SKIRT TO MATCH
OVERBLOUSE

Skirt pattern from The Modern Priscilla, June 1916

"Money Getters for the War-time Bazaar"
The Modern Priscilla, October 1918

DOING ONE'S BIT WITH THE SCRAP BAG

"Doing One's Bit with the Scrap Bag"
The Modern Priscilla, December 1918

"To be well-dressed is many times the pivotal factor in a woman's career..."
Clothing ad for Mallinson's "Silks de Luxe" from The Woman Citizen, April 5, 1919

No. 804

No. 2494

Ad for Knox clothing
The Woman Citizen, June 1919

The Woman Citizen, September 1919. Ad for H.R. Mallinson & Company, Inc.

WITH the first warm days of Spring, you feel the woods and hills calling you to explore their dim recesses for the hardy, fragrant arbutus and the shy elusive hepatica.

Ad for Onyx Hosiery.
The Woman Citizen, May 1920.

Ad for R.H. Macy & Co., Inc.
The Woman Citizen, December 1921.